The claimant, Dorsey Thompson, appeals from the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission affirming the decision of the Appeals Tribunal that he lacked good cause for an untimely appeal.

DISMISSED.

DIVISION ONE HOLDS: Because Mr. Thompson failed to challenge the grounds upon which the Commission dismissed his claim, and because he failed to substantially comply with the rules of appellate briefing, we dismiss this appeal as Mr. Thompson has not preserved any issue for appellate review.

Opinion by: Angela T. Quigless, P.J.

Robert M. Clayton III, J., and Sherri B. Sullivan, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant: Dorsey Thompson, pro se

Attorney for Respondents: Ross A. Kaplan
