RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO MODIFY JUDGMENT OF PATERNITY

COMES NOW Respondent, Selma Topalovic, and for her Motion to Modify the Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage entered in this cause on December 26, 2017, states:

1. A Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage was entered on or about December 26, 2017 (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Judgment").

2. Pursuant to the terms of the Judgment, the parties have joint legal and physical custody of the minor child born of Petitioner and Respondent; [redacted] (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "the minor child") with a specific schedule set forth for the parties' respective parenting time with the minor child in the event that they did not agree otherwise.

3. Since entry of the Judgment, there have been changes in the circumstances of Petitioner, Sejad Dzananovic, (hereinafter sometimes referred to herein as "Petitioner" or "Father") so substantial and continuing that a modification in the schedule and custody of Father's parenting time with the minor child is necessary to serve the best interests of the minor child, said changes including but not limited to the following:

4. It is in the best interests of the minor child that a change in custody time of the parties reflect more of a consist 50/50 plan and that the minor child attend counseling.

5. The minor child has lived in the state of Missouri for the 6 months immediately preceding the filing of this Motion to Modify; Respondent has not participated in any other litigation concerning the custody of the minor child in this state or any other state, and does not know of any other person not a party to this proceeding who has physical custody of said minor child or who claim to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said minor child.

6. Since entry of the Judgment, there have been substantial and continuing changes in the circumstances of Father so as to make the terms regarding child support unreasonable, said changes including but not limited to the following:

(A) Upon information and belief Father has new employment with a substantial increase in income.

7. It is in the best interest of the minor child that child support be modified pursuant to the changes mentioned above.

8. Mother lacks sufficient income and assets with which to pay her attorney's fees and is therefore in need of Father to contribute to her attorney's fees and costs incurred in prosecuting this action.

WHEREFORE, Respondent, Selma Topalovic, respectfully requests this Court to modify the Judgment entered in this cause on December 26, 2017; order custody time of the parties reflect more of a consistent 50/50 plan; order counseling for the minor child; order the parties communicate via a Parenting App; order Petitioner pay child support to Respondent pursuant to Form 14; order Petitioner contribute to her attorney's fees and costs incurred in prosecuting this action; and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper in the premises.
