A. Jost Associates, L.P., vs. St. Louis County, 03CC-3236, St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 13, Judge Wallace. I represented St. Louis County in this three-day bench trial. I was first chair. Opposing counsel was Jeffrey Hunt and Thomas Wehrle, 101 S. Hanley Road, Suite 1700, Clayton, MO 63105. This was a zoning case in which Jost filed suit against St. Louis County after Jost's request for rezoning was denied. The Court found in favor of Plaintiff Jost on Count I to the extent of permanently enjoining Defendant St. Louis County from enforcement of the non-urban zoning classification of the property. The Court entered judgment in favor of St. Louis County on Count II, finding no taking had occurred.

Jost appealed the judgment on Count II to the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals handed down a decision affirming the trial court's judgment. Jost applied for transfer to the Missouri Supreme Court which was denied. A formal opinion was not issued by the Court of Appeals on this cause.

B. Dianna Reagan, et al. v. St. Louis County, 01CC-2685, St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 10, Judge Romines. I represented St. Louis County in this two-day bench trial. I was the first and only chair. Opposing counsel was Kevin Fritz, 714 Locust Street, St. Louis, MO 63101. This was a zoning case in which Reagan filed suit against St. Louis County after her property was rezoned. The Court found that a taking occurred and awarded damages and attorneys fees to Reagan.

St. Louis County appealed the judgment to the Court of Appeals and Reagan filed a cross appeal. The Court of Appeals handed down an opinion affirming in part and reversing in part the judgment of the St. Louis County Circuit Court. The Missouri Supreme Court granted Respondents/Cross-Appellants' application for transfer to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court then ordered the cause retransferred whereupon the Missouri Court of Appeals readopted its opinion originally issued June 30, 2006 as the decision of the Court. The citation is Reagan v. County of St. Louis, 211 S.W. 3d 104.

C. St. Louis County vs. William Federer, 00SM-9967C(K), St. Louis County Municipal Court, Judge Ullom. I represented St. Louis County, as second chair, in this 4-day jury trial. Opposing counsel was Brad Dede, 222 S. Meramec Avenue, Clayton, MO. Federer was charged with assaulting a person on a parade route. Federer was promoting his political campaign during the parade. He was found not guilty.

D. Lawless Properties, Inc. and Lawless Homes, Inc., et al. vs. St. Louis County, 01CC-2209, St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 41, Judge Burton. I represented St. Louis County in this 2-day bench trial. I was first and only chair. Opposing counsel was Steve Koslovsky, 168 N. Meramec, 4th Floor, Clayton, MO. This was a zoning case in which Lawless sought a declaratory judgment and damages pursuant to 42 USC §1983. Lawless asked the court to find the R-2 zoning on its property unreasonable. Lawless desired a change in zoning to accommodate an apartment complex it intended to build. The Court found for St. Louis County on both counts.

E. St. Louis County vs. Delfin Nieva, 01SM-7011C, et al., St. Louis County Municipal Court, Judge Adler. I represented St. Louis County as second chair in this probation revocation case. Opposing counsel was James Martin, 1067 Olive Street, 5th Floor, St. Louis, MO 63101. Dr. Nieva was charged with numerous housing code violations for an apartment building he owned and rented out. The County requested that Dr. Nieva's probation be revoked because of continued and severe non-compliance with the housing code. Dr. Nieva's probation was revoked and he was sentenced to 6 months in jail.

F. Jill Thompson vs. Pond Athletic Association and St. Louis County; Cause No. 682427; 10-10-97; St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 39, Judge Clifford. I represented defendant, St. Louis County. I was the first and only chair. Opposing Counsel was Bradley Bakula, 8011 Clayton Road, Clayton, MO 63117. Counsel for co-defendant Pond Athletic Association was Jess Ullom, 16476 Chesterfield Airport Road, Suite 200, Chesterfield, MO 63017. This was a six-day bench trial. Jill Thompson owned property near Pond Ball Park. Pond Ball Park erected lights on its ball fields. Plaintiff Thompson brought an action against Pond Athletic Association, St. Louis County, and the City of Wildwood (Wildwood was subsequently dismissed from the suit) asking for an order enjoining operation of the lights. The trial court found for defendants. Thompson appealed and lost that appeal.

G. State of Missouri ex rel. Rosemary Bloemer, et al., vs. Janet Hermann and the Board of Zoning Adjustment of St. Louis County, et al.; Cause No. 97CC-589; 6/23/97; St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 39, Judge Clifford. I represented the Board of Zoning Adjustment of St. Louis County. I was the first and only chair. It was a bench trial. Opposing counsel was David Bohm, 150 N. Meramec, 4th Floor, St. Louis, MO 63105. The St. Louis County Board of Zoning Adjustment granted a variance to the Meyer Co. A neighbor, Rosemary Bloemer filed a petition for writ of certiorari with the Circuit Court asking for a review of the actions of the BZA and reversal of the grant of variances. The court found in favor of Relator Bloemer.

H. Jerry Patton vs. County of St. Louis; Cause No. 99CC-2501; 3-5-01; St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 10, Judge Romines. I represented defendant St. Louis County. It was a bench trial. I was first and only chair. Opposing counsel was Vince Keady, Jr., 168 N. Meramec, Suite 400, St. Louis, MO 63105. Plaintiff Patton filed a petition with the St. Louis County Planning Department to change the zoning on a piece of property from R-2 to C-1. Despite the fact that the Planning Department and the Planning Commission recommended approval to the St. Louis County Council, the rezoning was never introduced as legislation and therefore was effectively denied. Patton filed suit in Circuit Court asking that his property be rezoned. The court found in favor of Patton.

I. There are numerous cases I have tried in administrative settings, particularly in front of the Division of Employment Security and the St. Louis County Board of Police Commissioners. I have also tried and argued many other cases on behalf of St. Louis County including small claims cases, property damage cases, condemnation hearings, expungements, and injunctive actions.

J. I have tried hundreds of cases, motions and probation revocations over the years in the St. Louis County Municipal Court System. There were over 80,000 cases filed in the St. Louis County Municipal Court System last year. As Chief Prosecuting Attorney of that court system and in training new prosecutors in our courts I often have occasion to try cases both on my own and by serving as second chair. I have not kept the information on all those cases but can list a few. Most have been bench trials but there have been several jury trials. Additionally, my job entails me assessing cases and giving advice on how to best prosecute and try cases on an almost daily basis. I enjoy doing this and have become very skilled at this.

a. St. Louis County v. Jason Bardt, 03SM-16268C; 6-15-04; South Division. Defendant was charged with malicious destruction of property. Defendant was found not guilty.

h. St. Louis County vs. Wardell Daniels; 96SM-13226, 96SM-13227, 96SM-13228; 10-15-96, South Division. Defendant was charged with driving while intoxicated, speeding, and failure to drive in a single lane. He was found not guilty of the dwi and speeding but was found guilty of the failure to drive in a single lane and was given an SIS with a 2-year probation and special conditions.

11. Have you briefed or argued any case in an appellate court? Yes
If yes, attach a list showing the citation for each case and describe the extent of your participation in briefing and arguing the case.

A. Jost Associates, L.P. vs. St. Louis County. I researched, briefed and argued the case.

B. Reagan vs. St. Louis County, 211 S.W. 3d 104. I researched and briefed this case.

C. Jill Thompson, et al., vs. St. Louis County and Pond Athletic Association, ED73455; 2-16-99. The Missouri Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the trial court, judgment in favor of defendants St. Louis County and Pond Athletic Association. The Court stated that no jurisprudential purpose would be served by a formal written opinion. It furnished the parties with a memorandum opinion. I represented St. Louis County. I did all the research, wrote the brief and also argued the case.

D. State of Missouri, ex rel., Michael Frank, Attorney at Law, P.C., Relator vs. The Honorable Ellis Gregory, Judge of the Associate Circuit Court of St. Louis County, State of Missouri, Division 43; Cause No. ED66076. Relator filed a Petition for Writ of Prohibition asking the Court to prevent Judge Gregory from enforcing an order to deduct fines and costs from defendant's cash bond refund assigned to defendant's attorney. I represented the respondent Judge Gregory. I did all the research and wrote the Answer in Response to Relator's Petition, along with the Suggestions in Opposition to Issuance of Writ of Prohibition. Judgment in favor of Respondent Judge Gregory.

E. Anne Rothschild vs. Labor and Industrial Relations Commission, Division of Employment Security, State of MO et al., ED51643. Rothschild exhausted her administrative remedies in seeking unemployment benefits and appealed to the Circuit Court, which affirmed the denial of benefits. Rothschild appealed that decision and the Court of Appeals held for respondent, affirming the Circuit Court's denial of benefits. I did all the research for and wrote the appellate brief.

Additionally, in my capacity as a supervising attorney in the County Counselor's Office and as Chief Prosecutor of the St. Louis County Municipal Courts, I have had many occasions to assist and advise other attorneys in the office on appellate work.

12. Set forth any additional information that demonstrates the quality of your legal work as an attorney.

A. I have been at the County Counselor's Office for 19 years. I became an Attorney IV within 11 years. I have been acting as the Chief Prosecuting Attorney and Chief Warrant Officer of the St. Louis County Municipal Court System for the last 15 years. There are over 80,000 cases filed in that court system annually. In my position, I have overseen the review, issuance and prosecution of charges on all of the cases in these courts, including approximately 1500 domestic violence cases/year, approximately 3,000 housing cases/year, and approximately 1,000 dwi cases/year.

B. Additionally, I have been one of the main forces behind the creation, development and continuing progress of the St. Louis County Mental Health Court and Jail Diversion Program. On the Jail Diversion Committee, I helped to develop and redevelop guidelines and procedures for the program pursuant to the federal grant we were awarded. I took a leading role on this committee and was invited to travel out of state to discuss our Jail Diversion Program. I originated the idea to provide these services to all the municipalities of St. Louis County and have worked hard over the last couple of years to bring this idea to fruition. On 06-03-05 the Post Dispatch wrote a front-page article about the Mental Health Court and the fact that the St. Louis County Council voted to allow us to offer the services of the Mental Health Court/Jail Diversion Program to the municipalities of St. Louis County. I have been interviewed by Art Holiday about mental health services, CIT and Mental Health Courts. In the last few years I have been in contact with approximately 50 municipalities and their officials regarding their participation in the Mental Health Court. To date I have personally worked with over 2 dozen municipalities on contracts for use of the Mental Health Court.

C. I have also worked closely with the St. Louis County Police Department on the creation of the Crisis Intervention Team Coordinating Council (CIT), the development of Crisis Intervention Teams, the training of the CIT officers, the implementation of the CIT program and its connection to the Mental Health Court, and the development of Crisis Intervention Teams in municipal police departments throughout St. Louis County and in the City of St. Louis. I sit on the Council for the Crisis Intervention Team of Greater St. Louis and have served on several subcommittees: Practice and Procedure, Municipal Contract and Resource Board Committees. I am now sitting on and working with the Missouri State CIT Council in an effort to spread CIT and Mental Health Courts throughout the state of Missouri. I am also on the steering committee of Missouri Partners in Crisis which is a statewide leadership coalition made up of law enforcement, public defenders, judges, prosecutors, social workers, psychiatrists, ER nurses, Mental Health service providers and individuals and family members affected by mental illness/substance abuse, who want to improve access to mental health and substance abuse services in Missouri.

D. I currently do the interviewing of any intern applicants. I supervise all interns who work at the office. I have also taken part in the interview process of new applicants for attorneys in the office. I supervise approximately half of the staff in the office. Over the years I've personally trained approximately 40 new attorneys at the County Counselor's Office.

E. In addition to my work with the County Municipal Courts, I supervise the prosecution of involuntary commitments in the Probate Court. I have also handled quite a bit of zoning litigation in the office. In the past, I have also handled numerous other civil matters in the office including: unemployment hearings, expungement cases, small claims cases, property damage cases, internal affairs hearings for the County Police Department, injunctive actions, and condemnation actions.

F. I have spoken at many functions, particularly in the areas of municipal court practice, domestic violence prosecution, and mental health courts. I also instruct at the Police Academy. I have trained over 1,200 area police officers in aspects of CIT and Mental Health Court in dealing with persons with mental illness. In May 2005 I gave a presentation at the Missouri Municipal and Associate Circuit Judges Association's Conference on the Model Domestic and Family Violence Code I drafted and the subsequent Domestic Violence Ordinance which St. Louis County adopted. In the past couple of years, I have presented at the Gains National Conference in Boston at the second and third National CIT Conferences in Orlando and Memphis, and at the Missouri Association of Drug Court Professionals Annual Conference in St. Louis and at Lake of the Ozarks.

G. I have sat on and been very active on many committees:

Also worked with the University on public safety and police protection issues regarding political events.

L. Interviewed attorneys and gave advice on appointment of public defenders for the St. Louis County Municipal Court System. Developed and drafted the terms of appointment, duties to be performed and process to be followed.

O. I have increased the number of involuntary commitments we prosecute and obtain.

P. Developed and implemented daily time sheets for completion by the support staff.
