OPINION SUMMARY

Catherine M. Manning (Wife) appeals from the trial court's judgment dissolving her marriage to Michael E. Manning (Husband). Wife contends that the trial court abused its discretion by: (1) dividing the marital property inequitably in Husband's favor, (2) failing to award her maintenance, (3) awarding only partial attorney fees, and (4) denying a new trial or evidentiary hearing on these issues.

AFFIRMED IN PART, REVERSED AND REMANDED IN PART.

Division One Holds: The trial court did not abuse its discretion in dividing the marital property, awarding only partial attorney fees, and denying a new trial or evidentiary hearing. However, we find that Wife established the threshold requirements of Section 452.335.1 and remand for consideration of the factors set forth in Section 452.335.2.
