MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

SOUSAN LOGHMANI AND GOLNAZ IMAN, Respondents, v.
NADER AFZALI, Appellant.

WD88344 Jackson County

Before Division One: Alok Ahuja, Presiding Judge, Thomas N. Chapman, Judge, and Janet Sutton, Judge

Nader Afzali ("Afzali") appeals a judgment of the Circuit Court of Jackson County, which granted a motion for attorney's fees filed by Plaintiffs Sousan Loghmani ("Loghmani") and Golnaz Iman ("Iman" and, together with Loghmani, "Plaintiffs"). Afzali raises six points on appeal.

AFFIRMED.

Division One holds:

1. Afzali's first two points were not preserved for appeal, in that these points attempted to assert error with the form or language of the judgment without having filed a motion to amend the judgment as required by Rule 78.07(c).

2. Afzali's third, fourth, and fifth points on appeal attempted to challenge the evidentiary basis for the award of fees; however, Afzali failed to provide a sufficient record on appeal to allow the appellate court to determine the questions presented in these points on appeal.

3. Afzali's sixth point on appeal was essentially an argument that the trial court's underlying judgment was in error; however, Afzali failed to establish error in his appeal of the underlying judgment, and his appeal of the independent action created by the motion for attorney's fees was not an additional opportunity to litigate the underlying case.
