JUDGMENT IN DEFAULT
(UNLAWFUL DETAINER)

Case called. Plaintiff(s) appears in person. Defendant(s) fails to appear and is in DEFAULT. The cause now being submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and evidence, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that Plaintiff(s) is entitled to a default judgment and finds that Plaintiff(s) lawfully possessed the premises and the Defendant(s) unlawfully detained the same.

Wherefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Plaintiff(s) have and recover from Defendant(s) possession of the premises at 2930 Heatherton Dr., Florissant, MO 63033 and damages, as evidenced by the record or the attached Affidavit, in the amount of $ n/a plus Court Costs. The value of the monthly rents and profits for the premises is $ n/a and Plaintiff(s) shall be entitled to $ n/a, double the sum of monthly rents and profits from the date of this Judgment until restitution is made, together with costs.

That, to the best of the undersigned's knowledge and belief, the defendant(s) (is) (are) employed in civilian life and that the defendant(s) (is) (are) not now engaged in the military service of the United States.
