JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

Now on this 2nd day of March, 2021, comes Petitioner Gerald Kut, in person and by his attorney, Michael Sloane, and the Respondent, Stephanie Kut, in person and by her attorneys, MCCARTHY, LEONARD & KAEMMERER, L.C. This cause coming on regularly to be heard and being called, the parties announce that they have entered into a written Separation and Property Settlement Agreement; thereupon, the cause is submitted to the Court upon the pleadings and proof, and the Court finds:

Petitioner has been a resident of St. Charles County, State of Missouri for ninety (90) days immediately preceding the filing of this Petition and currently resides at 6106 Vogt Drive, Weldon Spring, MO 63304 and that more than thirty (30) days has elapsed since service of process was obtained upon Respondent;

That neither Petitioner and Respondent are members of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty;

That the last four digits of Petitioner's Social Security number are [redacted], the last four digits of Respondent's Social Security number are [redacted], and that both parties are currently employed;

That the Petitioner and Respondent were married on May 21, 2005 in the County of Atchison, State of Kansas, and said marriage was registered in said county;

That the Petitioner and Respondent separated on or about the end of July 13, 2020;

There are two (2) minor children born of the parties' marriage, namely: [redacted] now age [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted] and [redacted] now age [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted]

That Respondent is not now pregnant;

That there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage of Petitioner and Respondent can be preserved, and therefore, the marriage is irretrievably broken.

That the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement is reviewed and found not unconscionable, and the Court further finds the Agreement to be an equitable division of the marital assets, and by agreement of the parties, the terms of their Agreement shall not be set forth in the Judgment of Dissolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed:

1. The marriage of Gerald Kut and Stephanie Kut be and is dissolved;
2. The entire Marital Settlement and Separation Agreement, Petitioner's Exhibit 1, shall be incorporated into and made a part of the Judgment of Dissolution herein, and attached hereto and ordered to be performed;
3. A Parenting Plan has been entered into by the parties and filed in this cause as Exhibit 2. The terms of the parties Parenting Plan shall be incorporated into and made a part of the Judgment of Dissolution herein, and attached hereto and ordered to be performed;
4. Petitioner shall pay to Respondent child support pursuant to Missouri Form 14 in the amount of $670.00 a month as agreed upon and attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

Electronically Filed - ST CHARLES CIRCUIT DIV - January 09, 2024 - 11:22 AM

5. Petitioner shall pay to Respondent retro-active child support up to the date of the September 29, 2020 PDL Order, which was a total of five (5) months. Retro-active child support is in the amount of $3,350.00.

6. Petitioner and Respondent shall claim one child as deductions for both federal and state income tax purposes until the oldest child turns the age of twenty-one or is emancipated. Then the Respondent shall claim the minor child on even years and the Petitioner shall claim on odd years until the child turns the age of twenty-one or is emancipated. If the Petitioner is behind in paying child support, Respondent shall have the right to claim both minor children on federal and state taxes.

7. Petitioner has waived maintenance from Respondent, now and in the future. Respondent has waived maintenance from Petitioner, now and in the future. Both Parties understand and acknowledge that they may not come back to this court or any other and seek maintenance.

8. Petitioner and Respondent have divided the property and debts in the attached Marital Separation Agreement. Said Agreement is incorporated as Exhibit 1.

9. That Petitioner Gerald Kut shall pay to MCCARTHY, LEONARD & KAEMMERER, L.C. the sum of $7,500.00 toward her attorney fees in this matter. Each party shall pay his or her own fees beyond the $7,500.00 paid to MCCARTHY, LEONARD & KAEMMERER, L.C. by Petitioner. There shall be judgment lien in the amount of $38,969.03 against Respondent Stephanie Kut and for MCCARTHY, LEONARD & KAEMMERER, L.C. Respondent agrees to pay said amount.

10. In the event of noncompliance with this order, the aggrieved party may file a verified motion for contempt.

11. The costs of this action shall be taxed against Petitioner.

MARITAL SETTLEMENT AND SEPARATION AGREEMENT

This Marital Settlement and Separation Agreement ("Agreement") is made this 2nd day of March, 2021, by and between Petitioner, GERALD KUT (hereinafter "JERRY"), and Respondent, STEPHANIE KUT (hereinafter "STEPHANIE").

WITNESSETH, that:

WHEREAS, JERRY and STEPHANIE were married on May 21, 2005. Said marriage was registered in Atchison County, Kansas;

WHEREAS, STEPHANIE and JERRY believe that there is no reasonable likelihood that their marriage can be preserved, and the marriage is, therefore, irretrievably broken, and as such, consent to the entry of a judgment of dissolution.

WHEREAS, JERRY and STEPHANIE each hereby represent to the other that he or she has made a full disclosure of all assets, income and debts in which he or she has an interest;

WHEREAS, JERRY and STEPHANIE believe it to be in their respective best interests to settle all claims for maintenance, all property rights, claims and interests of and between them, and make provisions regarding the disposition of their property and debts; and,

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and the other good and valuable consideration expressed herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, it is agreed as follows:

1. Agreement Incorporated into Family Court Judgment.

1.1 This Agreement shall be Incorporated into the Court's Judgment dissolving the Parties' marriage, and it shall be binding and conclusive on the Parties. All of the stipulations, conditions and agreements hereinafter contained are contingent upon the entry of a Judgment by the Family Court of St. Charles County dissolving the marriage of the Parties upon proper presentation thereof to the Court and are contingent upon the Court's determination that this Agreement is fair, equitable, reasonable, and not unconscionable.

2. Maintenance.

2.1 JERRY has the ability to independently meet his reasonable needs. JERRY waives any right to statutory or contractual maintenance from STEPHANIE and affirms that he will have no right to make any application with this or any other court in the future to seek support from STEPHANIE. JERRY acknowledges that said provision is non-modifiable.

2.2 STEPHANIE has the ability to independently meet her reasonable needs. STEPHANIE waives any right to statutory or contractual maintenance from JERRY and affirms that she will have no right to make any application with this or any other court in the future to seek support from JERRY. STEPHANIE acknowledges that said provision is non-modifiable.

3. Division of Property.

3.1 During the marriage, JERRY and STEPHANIE accumulated certain property and assets considered to be marital property. In addition, the Parties each have claims to certain separate, non-marital property. Each item of property owned by one or both of the

(c) STEPHANIE shall be responsible solely for payment of her student loans.

4.3 Except as may be expressly provided herein to the contrary, each party shall defend, indemnify and hold the other harmless from any and all herein disclosed debts, loans, mortgages, taxes, obligations, guarantees and expenses in any manner arising from, related to or connected with any item of property respectively received by each, and all debts set apart to each, under the terms of this Agreement. The foregoing shall include reasonable attorney's fees, litigation expenses and costs incurred by either party in the event of default by the indemnifying party.

5. Tax Information and Returns.

5.1 The Parties agree to cooperate with each other so as to make certain that each party hereto receives complete information concerning the income tax basis, or cost basis, of the respective assets in properties received by each of the Parties pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Both JERRY and STEPHANIE shall from now on cooperate in furnishing to the other spouse all information required of them by the other spouse which may be necessary for the timely filing of all income tax returns for any calendar year in which the Parties were married. Taxes for 2020 shall be filed married filing separately. The parties shall each receive half of any stimulus money received on behalf of the minor children and each shall receive any stimulus money paid attributable to them personally. Each party will cooperate with the process of preparing taxes. In the event that there should be an audit of the parties Federal and State tax returns, any audit adjustments arising from items of income or deduction relating to Jerry will be the responsibility of Jerry. Jerry agrees to warrant and defend and hold Stephanie harmless and indemnify her as to any liability associated with such adjustments. Any audit adjustments arising from items of income or deductions relating to Stephanie will be the responsibility of Stephanie. Stephanie agrees to warrant and defend and hold Jerry harmless and indemnify him as to any liability associated with such adjustments.

6. General Provisions.

6.1 Execution of Papers. Each party shall, at any time and from time to time hereafter, take any and all steps to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other any and all instruments, assurances and affidavits that the other party may reasonably require or find convenient, expedient or businesslike for the purpose of giving full force and effect to the provisions of this Agreement. The execution and exchange of all necessary instruments and documents to effect the distribution of the properties herein shall take place simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, or promptly upon presentation of such instruments and documents to the party required to sign, whichever first occurs.

6.2 Provisions for Failure to Perform Obligations with Notice Required. In the event that either party to this Agreement brings an action for failure to perform any of the obligations imposed by the Agreement on him or her, or for enforcement or clarification of the Agreement, the prevailing party in such action shall have the right to recover his or her attorney's fees and litigation costs reasonably expended in prosecuting or defending the action. However, no attorney fees shall be so recovered by a party filing an action unless that party seeking to recover said attorney fees and costs shall have delivered to the breaching party written notice of the alleged failure to perform, and said alleged failure was not cured within ten (10) days after the delivery of said notice. No fees or costs authorized by this paragraph shall be recovered except as determined and awarded by the Court in an action brought for enforcement, breach or clarification of the Agreement. Such written notice shall be sent by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, or overnight courier, or facsimile. Notice shall be deemed given (i) upon delivery, if sent (A) personal delivery or (B) courier, (ii) five days after being sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage and registration fees prepaid, or (iii) upon sending, if sent by facsimile to a party (with a facsimile machine generated confirmation sheet retained by the sender).

6.3 Mutual Waiver of Rights in Estates. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each party shall have the right to dispose of his or her property of whatsoever nature, real or personal, and each party, for himself or herself, respectively, and for their respective heirs, legal representatives, administrators Personal Representatives and assigns, hereby waives any right of election which he or she may have or hereafter acquire regarding the estate of the other or to take against any Last Will and Testament of the other or any codicil thereto, whether heretofore or hereafter executed, as provided for in any law now or hereinafter effective of this state or any other state or territory of the United States or any foreign country and renounces and releases all interest, right or claim of distributive share or intestate succession or dower or courtesy, or community property or statutory exemption or allowance or otherwise, that he or she now has or might otherwise have against the other or the estate of the other, or the property of whatsoever nature, real or personal, of the other party under or by virtue of the laws of any state or any country. Nothing contained in this particular paragraph, however, shall affect any obligations undertaken by either party in the other paragraphs of the Agreement.

6.4 Divestiture of Beneficiary and Survivor Rights. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the rights, claims and interests (collectively referred to in this paragraph as "Rights") of either party as beneficiary or surviving spouse in and to any type or form of (1) contract or policy of insurance on the life of the other party, (2) any stock options or restricted stock equivalents of the other party (3) any qualified or non-qualified retirement or deferred compensation plans (except a social security claim), are hereby divested and terminated, and each party waives, releases and relinquishes such rights. Each party agrees to formalize such waiver, release and relinquishment by executing any written waiver and/or consent that may be requested in order to effectuate the terms of this paragraph. This Paragraph 6.4 does not in any way preclude either, after the signing of this Agreement, to reassign any rights, claims, and interests of the other party as beneficiary or surviving spouse as they deem appropriate.

6.5 Trusts and Testamentary Dispositions. All previous last wills and testaments, trusts, powers of attorney for health care or financial matters, and other similar documents created by either party are hereby revoked to the extent that any such documents contain testamentary dispositions, inter-vivos transfers, powers of appointment to the other party, or powers of attorney to the other party.

6.6 Disposal of Property. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each of the Parties shall, from and after the date of this Agreement, have the right to dispose of his or her property by inter vivos conveyance, gift, last will or otherwise, as though a single person.

6.7 No Modification by Court. The Parties acknowledge, warrant and confirm each to the other that their contractual relationship is as evidenced hereunder and except for the terms of the parenting plan, shall not be subject to modification, amendment or alteration by the Circuit Court of St. Charles County, Missouri, or by any other court or tribunal at any time, for any reason, including, but not limited to, future change of conditions of either party; the remarriage of either party; the increase or decrease of the net worth, assets, income or affluence of either party; the dependence of others, including other spouses, children or grandchildren, upon either party; the change in the economy or increased or diminished need of the Parties regardless of the cause thereof.

6.8 Severability. In the event that any paragraph(s), sentence(s), clause(s), or phrase(s) of this Agreement shall be found invalid, void and/or unenforceable, for any reason, neither this Agreement generally nor the remainder of this Agreement shall thereby be rendered invalid or void. The remainder of this Agreement shall be construed and implemented in order to give effect to the intent of the Parties, as if such invalid, void or unenforceable provisions had not been a part hereof.

6.9 Voluntary Agreement. Each of the Parties hereby affirms that he or she is entering into this Agreement freely and voluntarily; that he or she has ascertained and weighed all the facts and circumstances likely to influence his or her judgment herein; that he or she has given due consideration to such provisions in question, that they have sought independent advice of counsel in regard to all details and particulars of the Agreement and the underlying facts; and that he or she clearly understands and assents to all the provisions hereof. The Parties further warrant that they have each disclosed to the other the full extent of their respective properties, debts and income, and each acknowledges that, in the negotiations and finalization of this Agreement and acts and transactions referred to herein, each has had the opportunity to perform an independent investigation concerning the nature, extent and value of the real and personal property, debts and income of the Parties and that the provisions hereof are just, equitable and not unconscionable, and merit the approval and confirmation of any Court called to adjudge the rights and relations.

6.10 Waiver of Discovery. JERRY and STEPHANIE acknowledge that they have each had the opportunity to complete formal discovery, such as Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, issuance of subpoena duces tecum, appraisals of real estate and other property, hire experts for the purpose of asset appraisal, employability, earning capacity and financial analysis, including the income tax ramifications of the terms of this Agreement, and depositions. If any formal discovery was not undertaken, each party has elected not to proceed with such discovery. Each party has been advised by his or her attorney of the risks of proceeding without such discovery. Each party has, nevertheless, directed his or her attorney to proceed without completing all of such discovery. Each party acknowledges that he or she has been informed by his or her attorney that one or the other party may or may not be entitled to more or less value than provided in this Agreement. The settlement has been based on the personal knowledge of each party, the review of the Statements of Income and Expenses and Statements of Properties filed by each party in this matter, documents and information obtained through formal and informal discovery, the deposition of Gerald Kut, his or her familiarity with financial matters, his or her knowledge and understanding of each party's respective financial holdings and interests, and the cost and delay of further discovery.

6.11 Waiver of Trial. Each party has had the opportunity to pursue a trial of this cause, including any appeals or actions that might follow thereafter, but has chosen not to do the same. Each party understands that he or she might have achieved a more favorable or less favorable outcome as a result of a trial with respect to maintenance, the characterization, valuation and division of marital and non-marital property and debts, and the costs of litigation, than what has been achieved as a result of this Agreement. Each party has agreed to forego the right to a trial of this cause due to the cost, delay and uncertain outcome of any trial or appeal therefrom and the desire to achieve an amicable resolution of this matter.

6.12 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall become effective between the Parties when approved by the Circuit Court of St. Charles, Missouri. This Agreement shall be binding on the heirs, representatives and assigns of the Parties hereto except as to the specific paragraphs which contain provisions for termination of obligations on the death of one or both of the Parties.

6.13 Living Apart. The Parties shall continue to live separate and apart and from the date of this agreement, free from any interference by the other, as if fully unmarried, and further, neither will molest, malign, annoy, nor trouble the other in any manner.

6.14 Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Missouri.
