ORDER

Case comes before the Court for hearing to amend Defendant's conditions of release. Defendant appears in person and by attorney Jeff Becker. State appears by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Tara Renaud. Cause heard on record. By Consent:

It is HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's conditions of bond shall be amended in the following manner:

1. Defendant is permitted to contact her children, M.M. and A.E., in accordance with the same custody, visitation, and supervision conditions as imposed by the court in her pending family law proceedings. Those conditions are as follows:

   a. Defendant is granted visitation of her children for up to eight (8) hours per week, in one-hour increments;

   b. Said visitation shall be supervised by the Children's Division, its designee, Monica Williams, or Loreli Escalante;

   c. Said visitation may occur at Defendant's home only after the Children's Division conducts a walk-through therein; and

   d. Defendant is permitted to have two (2) overnight visits per week at Loreli

Escalante's home, provided that Defendant does not sleep in the same bedroom as the children. Loreli Escalante must be present at all times when Defendant is in the home

2. All other conditions of bond shall remain in full force and effect.

SO ORDERED: Nancy McLaughlin Date: 11/20/2023

Respectfully submitted,

ROSENBLUM, SCHWARTZ & FRY, PC
