CONSENT JUDGMENT/ORDER PENDENTE LITE REGARDING PARENTING TIME

Come Now, Petitioner, JAMES MOTLIK and Respondent, KATHRYN DAVIS, and for their Consent Judgment/Order Pendente Lite Regarding Parenting Time ("Consent Order"), hereby agree as follows:

1. The above-captioned child custody and child support matter is presently pending before this Court involving the parties' children, to-wit: K.J.M., age 4; and K.R.K.M., age 1.

2. Upon the filing of this Consent Order with the Court, the parties shall share parenting time with the children per the schedule below beginning Week I.

	SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
WEEK 1	Mother	Father to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Father	Mother to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Mother	Father to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Father
WEEK 2	Father	Mother to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Mother	Father to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Father	Mother to receive children after daycare or 7:00pm if no daycare.	Mother

3. Custody exchanges shall take place at the daycare/school of the children or at the residence of the parent whose custody time is beginning if no daycare/school, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing via Our Family Wizard.

Electronically Filed - ST LOUIS COUNTY - November 30, 2023 - 06:14 AM

4. Each party is responsible for transporting the children to any agreed-upon activity and/or appointment scheduled during their custodial time.

5. The parties acknowledge that the parenting schedule stated in Paragraph #2, above, may be adjusted by additional agreement of the parties, or by further order of the Court.

6. Each party shall allow the other parent reasonable contact with the children during their parenting time, and each party may contact the children in a reasonable manner when the children are with the other parent.

7. The parties shall refrain from making negative, derogatory, or degrading statements about the other parent in the presence of the children. To the extent possible, the parties should make reasonable effort to prevent other persons from making negative, derogatory, or degrading statements about the other parent in the presence of the children.

8. The parties shall avoid discussing parenting issues, financial issues, and other topics related to these proceedings with the children and/or with others when the children are present.

9. The children shall not be used as messengers to facilitate communications between the parties.

10. The parties shall take all necessary steps to effectuate the terms of this Consent Order.

11. This Consent Order is temporary and is subject to change based upon the additional consent of the parties, and/or further Order of the Court.
