Re: Cause No. 23SL-DR03510

Dear HAMID REZA HAMRAH:

The court has reviewed your file and will be unable to grant a dissolution of marriage based upon the documents you filed because the petition you filed fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. If you have used the forms from the court website, then you may have left certain questions blank or answered them incorrectly. Please call the St. Louis County Family Court Self Advocacy Center at (314) 615-4742 to discuss the problems with your filing.

Your case will be dismissed twenty days from the date of this letter, unless you file an amended Petition which corrects these problems. If your spouse has filed an answer to your petition, he or she will need to file an AMENDED answer to your amended petition. If your case is dismissed you will lose your filing fee and you will not receive your dissolution of marriage.

IF YOUR AMENDED PETITION IS NOT COMPLETELY CORRECT, YOUR CASE WILL BE DISMISSED AND YOU WILL LOSE YOUR FILING FEES.

You may visit the St. Louis County Family Court Self Advocacy Center to discuss these problems. Their telephone number is (314) 615-4742. Their hours are Monday through Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Center is closed on Fridays. Approved forms are available at no charge from the Court website at www.selfrepresent.mo.gov.

The Family Court Self Advocacy Center cannot provide you with legal advice. It is your responsibility to proceed according to Missouri law. A dissolution of marriage is a complex legal proceeding which can substantially affect your personal and financial future. You are urged to consult an attorney.

Sincerely,

CK
