RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISSOLVE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

COMES NOW Respondent, Karen Edith Galo, and for her Motion to Dissolve Temporary Restraining Order, states as follows:

1. On August 2, 2023, at the request of Petitioner, this Court entered a Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO"). The primary purpose of the TRO was to permit Petitioner and the parties' minor child, [redacted] to travel to Honduras from August 15-19, 2023.

2. To permit said international travel the Court temporarily awarded Petitioner sole legal custody of [redacted].

3. The travel to Honduras has occurred and is completed. As a result there is no further reason to maintain Petitioner as the sole legal custodian of [redacted].

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, Respondent prays that this Court enter its order dissolving the Temporary Restraining Order entered on August 2, 2023, vacate the hearing scheduled for September 7, 2023, and for such further orders as to the Court may seem meet, just and proper.
