MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS EASTERN DISTRICT

DIVISION FIVE

JUDITH ANN SEGCELKE,	)	No. ED92857
Appellant,	)	Appeal from the Circuit Court
	)	of St. Charles County
vs.	)
RAYMOND SEGCELKE,	)	Honorable Norman C. Steimel III
Respondent.	)	FILED: August 17, 2010

Judith Seggelke (“Wife”) appeals from a judgment dissolving her marriage to Raymond Seggelke (“Husband”). Wife claims the trial court erred in distributing the marital property and in failing to award her attorney’s fees.

REVERSED AND REMANDED

Division Five Holds: The trial court shall hold an evidentiary hearing to determine the value of Husband’s pension, Wife’s pension, Seggelke and Pujji, Inc, LLC, and any other item of property for which a value was not provided at trial; the amount expended by Wife from marital funds to satisfy the maintenance obligation under the PDL judgment and for Wife’s reasonable living expenses. Trial court shall make any adjustments required after hearing.

Opinion by: Thomas J. Frawley, Special Judge
Roy L. Richter, C.J., Kenneth M. Romines, concur

Attorneys for Appellant: Benicia Baker-Livorsi

Attorneys for Respondent: Jane E. Tomich
