John Lucas (hereinafter, “Husband”) appeals from the trial court’s judgment denying his motion to dismiss Lezlee Lucas’ (hereinafter, “Wife”) motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction pendente lite. Husband raises one point on appeal, arguing the trial court’s judgment was null and void since it did not comply with Section 526.070 RSMo (2000) by not ordering Wife to post a bond in conjunction with the temporary restraining order.

DISMISSED.

Division Four Holds: This Court lacks jurisdiction to address Husband’s point on appeal because the case is moot.
