)	of the City of St. Louis vs.)
)
DAVID STUERMAN,)	Hon. John F. Garvey, Jr.
Appellant.)	FILED: June 22, 2010

Before Kathianne Knaup Crane, P.J., Clifford H. Ahrens, J., and Nannette A. Baker, J.

David Stuerman (Defendant) appeals the trial court’s judgment and sentence after a jury convicted him of first-degree statutory rape, three counts of first-degree statutory sodomy, three counts of child molestation, and two counts of incest. Defendant asserts that the trial court erred by entering a written sentence that did not conform to the court’s oral pronouncement. The State agrees that clerical error resulted in a discrepancy between the oral and written sentence.

AFFIRMED IN PART AND REMANDED IN PART.

DIVISION ONE HOLDS: The judgment of conviction is affirmed, but the case is remanded for correction of the written sentence pursuant to Rule 29.12(c).
