Kimberly Morgan (Employee) appeals from the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission (Commission) dismissing her application for review as untimely.

The Division of Employment Security (Division) filed a motion to dismiss Employee's appeal arguing Employee's brief does not preserve any issue for appeal.

DISMISSED.

Division Three Holds: Employee's brief fails to address the only issue that was before the Commission, whether her appeal to the Commission was timely. Employee has failed to preserve any issue for appeal. The Division's motion to dismiss the appeal is granted.

Opinion by: Sherri B. Sullivan, P.J. Clifford H. Ahrens, J., and Lawrence E. Mooney, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant:                      Acting Pro Se
Attorney for Respondent Division:      Ninion S. Riley
