Michael Ford appeals the trial court's judgment of conviction of one count each of first-degree robbery and armed criminal action, in violation of §569.020, R.S.Mo. (2000), § 571.015, R.S.Mo. (2000) respectively. Ford contends the trial court erred in denying his motion to suppress physical evidence seized by police and incriminating statements he made thereafter.

AFFIRMED

DIVISION FOUR HOLDS: The police officer in this case was justified in initiating the temporary stop of Ford and his subsequent actions were reasonably related in scope to the circumstances which justified the officer's interference in the first place. We affirm the judgment of the trial court.
