MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS WESTERN DISTRICT

SANDRA WILLIS, APPELLANT

v.

MISSOURI FARM BUREAU SERVICES, INC., RESPONDENT DIVISION OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY, RESPONDENT

WD75528

Labor and Industrial Relations

Before Division One: Mark D. Pfeiffer, P.J., Victor C. Howard and Alok Ahuja, JJ.

Sandra Willis filed a claim for unemployment benefits after she was discharged from her employment as a production assistant with Missouri Farm Bureau. A deputy for the Division of Employment Security determined that Willis was disqualified from receiving benefits because she was discharged for misconduct connected with work. Willis filed an appeal with the Appeals Tribunal, which heard the matter and reversed the deputy's determination. Employer appealed and the Commission reversed the decision of the Appeals Tribunal. Willis appeals.

DISMISSED.

Division One holds:

Willis asserts in his brief on appeal that the Commission erred in denying her benefits because the decision was not supported by the facts or all of the evidence on the whole record. However, Willis's brief contains significant deficiencies and does not comply with Rule 84.04, preserving nothing for appellate review. Accordingly, Willis's appeal is dismissed.
