Your Missouri Judiciary Account gives you access to the judicial services available. If you already have a Missouri Judiciary Account, you can sign in here.

 This is a multi-step process. First you register by creating a Missouri Judiciary Account if you do not have one. You will be asked to register by entering ID information, name, address and security questions. The second step will be subscribing to a Missouri Judiciary service. Certain services require a subscription and a payment process. You will receive a confirmation of your registration that you may print as well as an e-mail notification. Once you have registered, subscribed and paid (if applicable) you will be able to log in.

Registration Step 1 of 5 - MOBAR Validation

Help

 The following screens will help you create a Missouri Judiciary Account that is a requirement to log in to judicial services such as eFiling and Supreme Court Publications. Please enter your MOBAR number and PIN and select Continue to proceed through these steps. If you do not have a MOBAR number then select the appropriate option and select Continue.

License/User Agreement

Welcome to the Attorney Electronic Document Filing System. This website is for official court business Only. All activity is monitored and recorded. Any unauthorized or criminal activity will be forwarded to the appropriate law enforcement officials.

In order to register for an account with OSCA, you must accept the terms of the user agreement as explained below. Failure to accept these terms will take you back to the Login screen.

This serves as your e-file agreement with the Missouri State Courts for the purpose of Attorney Electronic Document Filing. This agreement will remain in effect as long as you are an active registered attorney.

I accept the following conditions of eFiling:

- a. pay any required subscription fee;
- b. electronically furnish and maintain registration information;
- c. maintain an email address at which the registered user agrees to accept;
- d. ensure that the login is used only by the registered user to whom it is assigned and by agents and employees as the registered user may authorize. No registered user shall knowingly permit his or her log-in sequence to be used by anyone other than his or her authorized agents and employees. A government attorney whose subscription fee has been waived shall use that login only for governmental purposes;
- e. furnish required information for case process.

1. Registered users shall be individuals; not law firms, agencies, corporations, or other groups.
