- I was ordered to pay child support.
- The other parent was ordered to pay child support.
- Neither parent was ordered to pay child support.
- The judgment did not mention child support.

6. Why are you asking this court for a change of custody and/or visitation with your child(ren)?

Within 30 days of the filing of this Motion, you must also file a proposed Parenting Plan that includes the changes you would like the court to consider.

7. What circumstances have changed since this court entered its last custody judgment?

8. If you are asking for a change in child support, what circumstances have changed since this court entered its last child support judgment?

Your Information

(First Name) (Middle Name) (Last Name) (Jr./Sr./III)
(Enter your full legal name on the lines above)

9. What is your mailing address?

The address you provide is the address at which you will receive all mail from the court and the other parent regarding this case. If you move during the time this case is pending, you must send a letter to the court notifying it of your new address. This address is not necessarily the same as the address at which you live. If you do not wish to give the address at which you live, you must still give the court and the other parent a mailing address. Because court actions are a matter of public record, the address you list will be available to the public.

Directions for Service on the Other Parent (Enter the name of the other parent on the lines below)

(First Name) (Middle Name) (Last Name) (Jr./Sr./III)

If you do not know the location of the other parent and you have no way of contacting them, you must attempt to serve them at their last known address or place of employment. Once you make an honest and reasonable effort to personally serve them and are still unable to get service, then you may file a Request for Service by Publication asking the court to publish notice of your Motion in the local newspaper. The Request for Service by Publication is available on the Representing Yourself website at selfrepresent.mo.gov. If you have service by publication, you are not entitled to obtain any kind of money judgment including child support. This option should only be used as a last resort.

Check one of the following service options:

- The other parent has signed a verified Answer to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support which is being filed with the Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support. Therefore, do not issue a summons.

If you check this box, you must file the Answer to Motion to Modify Child Custody and Support at the same time you file this Motion. The Answer must be signed by the other parent in front of a notary public.

- The other parent should be served with a summons at their home:

The other parent must be served within 30 days of the issuance of the summons. If you are going to have the other parent served, you must file another copy of all your documents in this case to be served on the other parent.

(Street)

(City) (State) (Zip)

- The other parent should be served with a summons at their place of employment:

The other parent must be served within 30 days of the issuance of the summons. If you are going to have the other parent served, you must file another copy of all your documents in this case to be served on the other parent.

(Employer's Name) (Hours of Employment)

(Street)

(City) (State) (Zip)

- The other parent cannot be served in Missouri. Therefore, service by registered mail is requested. A copy of the Affidavit for Service by Mail is attached to this form. See Missouri Supreme Court Rule 54.12(b).

If you request a summons to be served outside of the county where you filed this Motion, the court may require you to deliver the summons to the sheriff of the county where the summons will be served. You must also pay the appropriate service fee to that sheriff. For further instructions, please contact the circuit clerk in the county where your Motion is filed.

Service on Family Support Division (if necessary)

If any of the children listed in this Motion receive or have received Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefits, you must serve the Family Support Division with a copy of your Motion and Parenting Plan.

- The child(ren) receive, or have received in the past, TANF benefits through the Family Support Division. The Family Support Division shall be served by certified mail at:

Director, Family Support Division
 615 Howerton Court
 Jefferson City, Missouri 65102

You must file the certified mail receipt with the court.
