RESPONDENT'S ANSWER TO PETITION FOR CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT FORMS

(These forms shall be used by a person responding to Petition for Child Custody and Support.)

Introduction

These forms are available to you at no cost on the Representing Yourself website. Some courts may provide paper copies of these forms for a fee. Only a lawyer may charge you a fee for preparing these forms. You are required to complete the Litigant Awareness Program on selfrepresent.mo.gov before preparing these forms. Your local court may also have other educational programs available to help you in the preparation of these forms.

General Information about Forms

The forms must be downloaded with Adobe Acrobat Reader or Adobe Acrobat DC to save the information you enter. Adobe Acrobat Reader DC is available for free from the Adobe website. Save the forms before you begin entering information. After you have filled in the forms on your computer, save the information and print the forms to file them with the court.

If you are working on a public computer, don't save your personal information on the public computer. Use a USB memory stick or other removable device.

The forms listed below are interactive. If you fill in the forms on your computer, some of the information you enter on one line may automatically transfer to another line. The forms also contain bookmarks that help you to navigate through the forms. In addition, there are "links" embedded in the forms. These links are usually blue and can take you to a related location in the forms or to a related website.

Most documents that are filed with the court can be seen by anyone online. Some information on documents is considered confidential and must be removed or hidden.

► If you are filing a document with the court YOU must be aware of what information is considered confidential.

What is confidential information?

Confidential information often used in family court matters can include information listed in Court Operating Rule 2.02(c). This is not a complete list. If you are filing attachments to any forms from this website, confidential information might be on those documents also.

► YOU are responsible for redacting (removing) information you are filing with the court that is confidential.

How do I remove information?

Redact means to remove or hide information listed on a document before you file it with the court. Below are two ways you can redact confidential information:

Option One

- 1) Fill out your documents completely (including confidential information).
- 2) Make a copy of all documents that have confidential information.
- 3) Go through the copied documents and black out or white out any confidential information.

Option Two

- 1) Fill out your documents using generic descriptions for any confidential information you do not want to provide. For example, use initials or "Child One" instead of the full name of a child.

If you remove any information, you are required to show the court what you removed when you complete the Confidential Case Filing Information Sheet (F110). Do not redact the Confidential Case Filing Information Sheet (F110) or the Redaction Certification form (GN320).

► YOU must confirm you have followed the rules for redaction.

How do I do this?

After you have done option one or two above, confirm you have followed the rules by filling out the Redaction Certification form (GN320). You have to fill out this form even if you did not remove any information.

► YOU must file with the court all unredacted and redacted documents and the Redaction Certification form (GN320).

► IF you think SOMEONE HAS NOT CORRECTLY REDACTED INFORMATION, file the Motion to Correct Redaction form (GN325) to bring it to the attention of the court. The form is available from the Home page of this website under Approved Court Forms.

You are a Respondent. The person who filed the Petition for Child Custody and Support is the Petitioner.
