vs.	)
ABELES & HOFFMAN, P.C.,	)	Honorable David L. Vincent III
Defendant/Respondent.	)	Filed: February 18, 2020

Christopher A. Jackson, et al. (Appellants) appeal from the trial court's judgment granting the motion for summary judgment filed by Abeles & Hoffman, P.C. (Respondent). Appellants claim the trial court erred because there were insufficient uncontroverted material facts to establish summary judgment pursuant to Missouri case law related to professional negligence claims against an accounting firm by a non-client.

AFFIRMED.

Division Three Holds: The trial court did not err in granting summary judgment in favor of Respondent because the uncontroverted material facts established Appellants would be unable to succeed on their claim of professional negligence.

Opinion by: Sherri B. Sullivan, J. Mary K. Hoff, P.J., and Angela T. Quigless, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellants: Brent L. Martin
Attorneys for Respondent: Lyndon P. Sommer; Joseph F. Devereux, III; Benjamin R. Wesselschmidt
