v.	)	16SL-CR08614

SCOTT BAILEY,	)	Honorable Kristine A. Kerr
	)
Appellant.	)	Filed: March 31, 2020

Scott Bailey ("Bailey") appeals the trial court's judgment entered upon a jury verdict convicting him of one count of second-degree involuntary manslaughter.

AFFIRMED.

Division Two Holds: 1.) The trial court did not err in allowing the jurors to use a transcript of a video recorded by dash-camera. 2.) The jury's verdict was not coerced because the court improperly forced the jurors to continue to deliberate after the jury sent notes to the trial court indicating their lack of progress at arriving at a verdict. 3.) The trial court did not err in denying his request for a mistrial when the prosecutor elicited testimony from its witness that Bailey and Sooter were racing the night of the accident. 4.) The court did not fail to maintain an appearance of neutrality. 5.) The court did not err in denying Bailey's multiple motions for mistrial because of allegedly improper conduct of the bailiff during trial. 6.) The State did not improperly strike four of the six African American members of the venire panel.
