ORDER

COMES NOW THE COURT and hereby orders that all defendants with outstanding warrants from the Hazelwood Municipal Division who are apprehended shall be released upon the issuance of summons and assigned a new court date. Defendant need not be taken into custody/and or booked, and upon the issuance of summons, the warrant for said defendant shall be cancelled.

Upon notification from other police agencies that a defendant who has an outstanding warrant from the Hazelwood Municipal Division has been arrested and is in their custody; the agency shall be advised that the defendant may be released on his/her recognizance and provided a new court to appear. The warrant for said defendant shall be cancelled.

This order is a temporary order to remain in effect until April 30, 2020 or until further order of the Court.

SO ORDERED:

JUDGE
