In the Missouri Court of Appeals
Eastern District

DIVISION THREE

N.C.,	)	No. ED108207
	)
Respondent,	)	Appeal from the Circuit Court of
	)	St. Louis County
vs.	)	19SL-PN03448
	)
Y.Q.L.,	)	Honorable Mary B. Schroeder
	)
Appellant.	)	Filed: September 22, 2020

Y.Q.L. appeals the trial court's judgment which entered a full order of protection pursuant to § 455.010 against him and in favor of N.C. Y.Q.L. asserts that there was insufficient evidence that he was guilty of stalking N.C. within the meaning of § 455.010. We disagree.

AFFIRMED.

DIVISION III HOLDS: The trial court did not err by entering a full order of protection against Y.Q.L. and in favor of N.C. because N.C. presented sufficient evidence N.C. was the victim of stalking by Y.Q.L., who was her former patient, in that Y.Q.L. made repeated, purposeful, and unwanted contact with N.C. in person and through email in an attempt to establish a friendly if not romantic relationship with N.C. whom Y.Q.L. referred to as his "future wife" and with whom he believed he had been in a relationship with in a previous life all of which was subjectively alarming to N.C. and would have been objectively alarming to a reasonable person.
