In the Missouri Court of Appeals
Eastern District
DIVISION THREE

STATE OF MISSOURI,	)	No. ED108428
	)
Respondent,	)	Appeal from the Circuit Court
	)	of the City of St. Louis
vs.	)
	)	Honorable James E. Sullivan
DORYON MASON,	)
Appellant.	)	FILED: October 20, 2020

Doryon Mason ("Mason") appeals from the trial court's judgment following a jury conviction for robbery in the first degree and armed criminal action. In his sole point on appeal, Mason challenges the sufficiency of the evidence for his conviction. Specifically, Mason argues the State failed to adduce sufficient evidence under accomplice liability of his intent to commit the underlying offense of first-degree robbery.

AFFIRMED.

DIVISION THREE HOLDS: Because the defendant met up with the other accomplices at the store where he supplied the gun used to commit the robbery in the same location a short time later, sufficient evidence supports the jury's finding that the defendant acted with the purpose of promoting the underlying offense of first-degree robbery to sustain his conviction under accomplice liability. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the trial court.
