The defendant, Janet Shanklin, appeals pro se the judgment and sentence entered by the Circuit Court of St. Louis County, Municipal Division, following her conviction by a jury of three counts of violation of orders of protection and one count of harassment. The trial court sentenced Shanklin to 14 days of confinement each on counts II and III, to be served consecutively in the county jail. On counts IV and V, the court sentenced Shanklin to 14 days of confinement with execution suspended and two years of probation for each. Shanklin challenges her conviction on numerous bases.

APPEAL DISMISSED.

DIVISION THREE HOLDS: Shanklin's failure to comply with the briefing requirements of Rule 84.04 impedes our ability to reach a disposition on the merits to such an extent that we cannot conduct a meaningful review without improperly advocating for her. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.
