v.	)	1722-CR02010-01
	)
TERRY M. SLAYTON,	)	Honorable Joseph P. Whyte
Appellant.	)	FILED: January 19, 2021

Terry M. Slayton ("Slayton") appeals from the trial court's entry of judgment and sentences after a jury trial found him guilty of domestic assault in the fourth degree, burglary in the first degree, and violating an order of protection. On appeal, Slayton has filed a motion to remand for a new trial due to his inability to obtain a complete transcript on appeal despite exercising due diligence to correct the deficiencies in the record, resulting in prejudice.

REVERSED AND REMANDED

Division Two Holds: This Court is unable to conduct a meaningful review of Slayton's criminal trial where the trial transcript failed to transcribe the testimony of at least five out of six witnesses, resulting in prejudice to Slayton; therefore, we reverse the judgment of the trial court and remand for a new trial.
