D.E.W. (Appellant) appeals the judgment of the Family Court finding him guilty of four counts of stealing under paragraphs 5(c), 5(d), 5(e), and 5(g) of Respondent Juvenile Officer's Fourth Amended Petition. Appellant's first three points claim there was insufficient evidence for the Family Court to find him guilty of the stealing crimes in paragraphs 5(c), 5(d), and 5(e). Appellant's final point claims the court plainly erred in finding him guilty of committing misdemeanor stealing under paragraph 5(g) because Appellant was charged with a different offense, minor in possession of alcohol.

AFFIRMED and REMANDED FOR CORRECTION.

Division Two Holds: Respondent presented sufficient evidence to find Appellant guilty of each offense in paragraphs 5(c), 5(d), and 5(e). Appellant committed the crimes of stealing in a specific timeframe, place, and manner consistent with the victims' circumstances, acted with others as a group, and admitted to committing additional thefts. Appellant's final point on appeal fails because the record establishes that listing paragraph 5(g) as a stealing offense was a clerical error. Accordingly, we affirm the convictions and remand the judgment to the Family Court for the sole purpose of correcting the clerical error contained in the Adjudication Order.

Opinion by: Sherri B. Sullivan, J. Robin Ransom, P.J., and Lisa P. Page, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant: Craig A. Johnston
