MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

KEITH E. WALKER, Appellant, v.
ANNE PRECYTHE, ET AL., Respondents.

WD84121 Cole County

Before Division One Judges: Alok Ahuja, Presiding Judge, Lisa White Hardwick, Judge, and Anthony Rex Gabbert, Judge

Keith Walker appeals the judgment of the Cole County Circuit Court dismissing his petition for failure to state a claim. His petition was captioned a "Whistle Blower Complaint" and alleged violations of law by the Missouri Department of Corrections where he was incarcerated. He raises eight points on appeal.

DISMISSED.

Division One holds:

Where the Appellant's brief fails to comply with the briefing requirements of Rule 84.04 to such an extent that the appellate court would have to hypothesize about the Appellant's argument and precedential support for it and become an advocate for the Appellant by searching the record for the relevant facts of the case, speculating about the possible claims of error, and crafting a legal argument on his behalf, the appeal must be dismissed.
