Great West Casualty Company ("Great West") appeals from the judgment of the Circuit Court of St. Louis County (the "Dismissal Judgment"), whereby Great West was dismissed, without prejudice, from the underlying interpleader action it commenced to determine the proper distribution of $1 million of insurance proceeds following a vehicular accident caused by its insured. In its sole point on appeal, Great West argues that although the circuit court correctly dismissed it from the interpleader action, its dismissal should have been with prejudice, as a dismissal without prejudice is erroneous because it remains exposed to additional liability beyond the policy limits of its insured.

APPEAL IS DISMISSED.

DIVISION ONE HOLDS: Because Great West did not file a motion to amend the Dismissal Judgment pursuant to Missouri Supreme Court Rule 78.07(c), which was required because this allegation of error relates to the form or language of the Dismissal Judgment, Great West has not preserved this issue for appellate review, and thus, this appeal must be dismissed.
