MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

STATE OF MISSOURI, RESPONDENT, v.
REX BRADEN GASH, APPELLANT.

WD85805 Lafayette County

Before Division Four: Gary D. Witt, Chief Judge, Presiding, Cynthia L. Martin, Judge, and Chad Gaddie, Special Judge

Rex Braden Gash appeals from the trial court's judgment convicting him of operating a motor vehicle in a careless and imprudent manner involving an accident. Gash alleges that there was insufficient evidence from which a rational fact-finder could find him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt because the State failed to establish the warnings Gash should have used while operating a skid loader on a curvy, hilly, narrow roadway at night.

AFFIRMED

Division Four holds:

1. There was sufficient evidence from which a rational trier of fact could have found that Gash was careless and imprudent in operating a skid loader because he failed to take painstaking efforts to wisely and judiciously avoid errors or omissions in the manner expected of a very careful person in the same or similar circumstances.
