Respondents.	)	Filed: September 26, 2023

Before: Thomas C. Clark II, P.J., James M. Dowd, J., and John P. Torbitzky, J.

PER CURIAM.

Pamela McCoy appeals from the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission denying her claim for permanent total disability ("PTD") benefits from the Second Injury Fund.

AFFIRMED.

Division Four Holds: McCoy failed to demonstrate she had a qualified preexisting disability as required by section 287.220.3(2)(a)a, RSMo 2016, which would support her claim for PTD. This Court defers to the Commission's credibility determinations.

Opinion by: PER CURIAM

Attorney for Appellant: Ryan Ralph Cox
