OPINION SUMMARY
MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS EASTERN DISTRICT

DIVISION FOUR

JILL VAN DEEL, Appellant, v. A-PLUS CONTRACTING, LLC, and BYRON CORNELL JEFFRIES, Respondents.	)	ED114002 Filed: May 5, 2026

Appeal from the Circuit Court of St. Charles County
The Honorable W. Christopher McDonough, Judge

SUMMARY:
Jill Van Deel (Appellant) appeals from the circuit court's grant of summary judgment in favor of A-Plus Contracting, LLC (A-Plus) and Byron Jeffries (Jeffries) (collectively Respondents). Appellant sued Respondents for negligence alleging that they caused her injury when she rode her motorcycle through an oil spill coming from Respondents' leaking dump truck. On appeal, Appellant asserts two points: (1) that the circuit court erred by granting Respondents' summary judgment motion "based on the sudden emergency doctrine," wherein genuine issues of material fact exist, and (2) the circuit court erred by denying her leave to amend and file a third-amended petition.

APPEAL DISMISSED.

DIVISION FOUR HOLDS:
Because Appellant fails to recite the facts as required by Rule 84.04(c) and Rule 74.04(c) we cannot engage in fair and meaningful review; thus, we dismiss Point One. Additionally, Appellant's Point Two fails to substantially comply with Rule 84.04(d) or (e), preserving nothing for appellate review and requires dismissal. We dismiss Point Two.
