OPINION SUMMARY
MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS EASTERN DISTRICT

DIVISION TWO

SHERI R. GOODWIN, Respondent, v. SHAWN R. GOODWIN, Appellant.	)))))))))	ED113589 Filed: June 23, 2026

Appeal from the Circuit Court of Lewis County
The Honorable Corey R. Moon, Judge

SUMMARY:
Shawn Goodwin (Husband) appeals from the judgment of the trial court dissolving his marriage to Sheri Goodwin (Wife). Husband raises two points on appeal: the trial court abused its discretion 1) by adopting Wife's designations and valuations on Husband's property, and 2) by "not properly" dividing marital and nonmarital property when it awarded Wife marital property as her separate property and awarded Husband property owned by a third party.

AFFIRMED.

DIVISION TWO HOLDS:
As to Point One, the trial court did not abuse its discretion by crediting Wife's testimony and adopting the majority of Wife's valuations. As to Point Two, Husband's assertion that the trial court set off marital property as Wife's separate property is factually inaccurate, and Husband failed to carry his burden to demonstrate that property classified as marital was actually owned by a third party.

Opinion by: Virginia W. Lay, Judge
Michael S. Wright, Presiding Judge, and James M. Dowd, Judge, concur.

Attorney for Appellant:	John R. Fenley
Attorneys for Respondent:	Amy L. Ohnemus and Emily N. Reagan
