MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

STATE OF MISSOURI, Respondent, v.
JAMES FREDERICK WILSON, Appellant.

WD87896 Boone County

Before Division Two Judges: W. Douglas Thomson, Presiding Judge, Lisa White Hardwick, Judge, and Mark D. Pfeiffer, Judge

James Wilson ("Wilson") appeals the trial court's judgment after a jury convicted him of forcible rape (Count I) and assault in the first degree (Count II). He argues that the trial court failed to accurately memorialize the orally pronounced sentence for both offenses in the written judgment. At the sentencing hearing, the trial court orally pronounced a sentence of life in prison for each offense, to run consecutively. However, the trial court's written judgment sentenced Wilson to 999 years for both counts.

AFFIRMED AND REMANDED.

Division Two holds:

The State concedes error and we agree. The case is remanded to the trial court for the sole purpose of entering a nunc pro tunc order correcting the trial court's written judgment to reflect its oral pronouncement of a life sentence on Counts I and II, respectively, which are to be served consecutively. In all other respects, the judgment is affirmed.
