OPINION SUMMARY
MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS EASTERN DISTRICT

DIVISION FIVE

SHERYL GENTRY, Appellant, v. CRAIG J. CONCANNON, Respondent.	)))))))))	ED113791 Filed: July 21, 2026

Appeal from the Circuit Court of Franklin County
The Honorable Craig E. Hellmann, Judge

SUMMARY:
Sheryl Gentry, guardian of the person and conservator of the estate of Mark Crader, appeals the circuit court's entry of summary judgment in favor of Craig J. Concannon. Gentry claims the circuit court erred in considering deposition testimony obtained in another case when evaluating Concannon's motion for summary judgment in this case.

AFFIRMED.

DIVISION FIVE HOLDS:
Gentry failed to refute any of Concannon's statements of undisputed material facts and failed to affirmatively state a genuine issue of material fact sufficient to defeat summary judgment. With Gentry having admitted Concannon's statements of uncontroverted material facts, Concannon is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Accordingly, this Court affirms the circuit court's entry of summary judgment for Concannon.

Opinion by: Kathleen S. Hamilton, Judge
John P. Torbitzky, Judge; Renée Hardin-Tammons, Chief Judge, concur.

Attorney for Appellant: James Peter Leonard

Attorney for Respondent: Richard Charles Wuestling IV; Susan Marie Dimond; Paul Joseph Hess

This summary is not part of the opinion of the court. It has been prepared for the convenience of the reader and should not be quoted or cited.