MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

CHRISTINE HARRELSON, Appellant, v.
DAVID CULVER, ET AL, Respondents.

WD88214 Sullivan County

Before Division One Judges: Gary D. Witt, Presiding Judge, Mark D. Pfeiffer, Judge, and Thomas N. Chapman, Judge

Christine Harrelson appeals from the judgment of the Circuit Court of Sullivan County, Missouri, quashing writs of executions levying personal property, holding Harrelson in contempt for her conduct, and entering a permanent injunction against her. On appeal, Harrelson claims that the trial court erred in: (1) holding her in contempt because the evidence was insufficient to establish a willful and intentional violation of a clear and specific court order; (2) characterizing her conduct as extrajudicial and unlawful; (3) permanently quashing the writs of execution; and (4) imposing an injunction against her.

APPEAL DISMISSED.

Division One holds:

We dismiss Harrelson's appeal as her brief fails to conform to Rule 84.04 to such a degree that this Court cannot consider her claims without serving as her advocate.
