

Redaction examples:

Using generic descriptors in place of confidential information

Prepared on computer

“Father” is the biological father of the three minor children who are subject of this appeal. The children are “Child One,” “Child Two” and “Child Three.” Protective custody of the minor children was taken by the Missouri Department of Social Services, Children’s Division, in or around March 2021 due to allegations of lack of supervision, substance abuse and physical abuse by the mother of the children, “Mother.” At the time of protective custody, Father resided in the state of California. Upon being informed that his three children were in the custody of the state of Missouri, Father indicated to the county children’s division investigator that he desired to regain custody of his children.

Handwritten

DFR is the biological father of three minor children who are subjects of this appeal. The three children are "Child 1," "Child 2" and "Child 3." Protective custody of the minor children was taken by the Missouri Department of Social Services, Children's Division, in or around March 2021 due to allegations of lack of supervision, substance abuse and physical abuse of the children by their "Mother." At the time of protective custody, the father resided in the state of California. Upon being informed that his three children were in the custody of the state of Missouri, the father indicated to the county children's division investigator that he desired to regain custody of his children.