Requests for trial setting shall be noticed for hearing in compliance with Missouri Supreme Court Rules and these local rules.

(2) Associate circuit judges shall establish procedures for setting cases for trial in the division in which they sit.

If a party does not file such schedules and statements, then that party is deemed to have accepted the statements and schedules that have been filed as their own. If the party requesting a trial setting has not filed all of the documents set out above, then the request for trial setting shall be stricken. Any party requesting a trial setting in a domestic relations case shall file with the request a verification that all of the documents specified herein are on file.

CASES SET FOR TRIAL ARE EXPECTED TO BE FOR DISPOSITION ON THE DAY SET. See also Rule 36.1(1) regarding scheduling cases for trial with or without juries.
