The Commission on Retirement, Removal and Discipline only has jurisdiction to investigate ethical violations of Missouri State judges. The Commission does not have the authority to review whether a judge has made the correct decision in a case. Disagreements with a judge's decision or order must be taken up with the appellate courts. Pursuant to Supreme Court en banc Opinion No. SC90937 the Commission on Retirement, Removal and Discipline no longer has jurisdiction to review complaints against court Commissioners. Such complaints should be filed with the presiding judge of the relevant circuit or with the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel, 3327 American Avenue, Jefferson City, Missouri 65109; telephone (573) 635-7400.

PURSUANT TO SUPREME COURT RULE 12, THE IDENTITY OF INFORMANTS IS KEPT CONFIDENTIAL. YOU MAY CHOOSE TO WAIVE THIS CONFIDENTIALITY.

I do waive the confidentiality of Supreme Court Rule 12 and request that a copy of my complaint be sent to the judge.

_ I do not waive the confidentiality provided by Supreme Court Rule 12 and request that the Commission not disclose my identity to the judge.
