Child Custody
6. No change in child custody or visitation was requested by the parties. Visitation - A modification of visitation is necessary to serve the best interests of the minor child(ren).
The court has "jurisdiction" (as defined in the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, §452.700, RSMo et seq.) over the custody arrangements of the minor child(ren).
The court approves the provisions of Part A of the parenting plan marked exhibit pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the minor child(ren) and finds that the visitation arrangements contained in said parenting plan are in the best interests of the minor child(ren). Therefore, the court orders the provisions of Part A of the said parenting plan pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the minor child(ren) and incorporates by reference all of the terms and conditions pertaining to the visitation arrangements of the minor child(ren) set forth in Part A of said parenting plan as if fully set forth herein.
The sheriff or other law enforcement officers shall enforce the rights of any person to custody or visitation pursuant to §452.425, RSMo. Custody - A change in circumstances has occurred regarding the minor child(ren) or the minor child(ren)'s custodian which makes a modification necessary to serve the best interests of the minor child(ren).

No change in circumstances has occurred regarding the minor child(ren) or the minor child(ren)'s custodian which makes a modification necessary to serve the best interests of the minor child(ren). The court does NOT have "jurisdiction" (as defined in the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, §452.700, RSMo et seq.) over the custody arrangements of the minor child(ren) and therefore enters no further orders with respect to the custodial arrangements of the minor child(ren).
Child Support
7. No change in child support was requested by the parties. A substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning child support unreasonable. The court orders the provisions of Part B of the parenting plan marked exhibit, pertaining to the support of the minor child(ren) and incorporates by reference all of the terms and conditions set forth in Part B of said parenting plan as if fully set forth herein.
□ No substantial and continuing change in circumstances has occurred which makes the terms concerning child support unreasonable.
The court does not have jurisdiction to enter any orders with respect to the support of the minor child(ren).
