Applicants should be aware that interviews will be held in public on February 4 and 5, 2015. The Commission will contact applicants after January 9, 2015 to notify them of the time and dates of the interviews.

Applicants should ask the persons listed as references to write a letter to the chief judge, with a copy to each commissioner, stating their opinion of your judicial qualifications.

Do not use judges as references. Applicants who have previously applied for the Circuit position vacancy created by Judge Mark Seigel's retirement need only send a letter requesting their previous application be transferred to the current opening.

Applicants should attach a brief biographical sketch to their application for publication purposes in the event the applicant is selected as one of the three nominees. A copy of the applications of the three nominees submitted to the governor will be made public within 72 hours of submitting the certificate of nomination; personal or confidential information will be redacted. If any applicant lists or attaches information concerning any confidential case(s) on the application, the applicant shall utilize initials rather than party names for these confidential cases.

Individual commissioners may be willing to meet informally with applicants prior to the public interviews. Applicants should contact commissioners directly to inquire.
