Respondent/Respondent.) Filed: June 14, 2011

Nicholas J. Kleimann (Employee) appeals from the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission (the Commission) denying him unemployment benefits.

REVERSED and REMANDED.

Division Three Holds: The Commission erred in denying Employee unemployment benefits because Employee did not commit misconduct in leaving a meeting which was scheduled last minute during non-work hours and Employee had a previously scheduled obligation.

Opinion by: Sherri B. Sullivan, P.J. Clifford H. Ahrens, J., and Lawrence E. Mooney, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant: Scott T. Reinagel, John J. Ammann
Attorney for Respondent: Larry R. Ruhmann
