Appellant.)	Filed: August 13, 2013

OPINION SUMMARY

Cortez Detree Bell appeals the judgment entered upon a jury verdict convicting him of distribution of a controlled substance.

AFFIRMED.

Division One holds: We decline plain error review of Bell's claim that the trial court erred in telling the jurors that there were two places on the video and audio recording where "the defendant and the confidential informant have some conversation by telephone."

Opinion by: Glenn A. Norton, J. Roy L. Richter, P.J., and Clifford H. Ahrens, J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant: Emmett D. Queener

Attorney for Respondent: Chris Koster, Attorney General
Andrew C. Hooper, Assistant Attorney General
