Lloyd E. Hoffmeister (“Hoffmeister”) appeals the amount of the judgment the trial court entered against Richard Kranawetter (“Kranawetter”) in Hoffmeister’s action for unjust enrichment.

AFFIRMED.

Southern Division Holds: The trial court did not err in finding Kranawetter was unjustly enriched by only $14,500, because there was sufficient evidence supporting the trial court’s equitable decision, the decision was not against the weight of the evidence, and it did not erroneously declare or apply the law.

Opinion by: Robert M. Clayton III, J.
Gary M. Gaertner, Jr., C.J. and Robert G. Dowd, Jr., J., concur.

Attorney for Appellant: Dale E. Gerecke, Adam E. Hanna

Attorneys for Respondent: Michael L. Jackson
