THE HONORABLE ROBERT G. WILKINS,)	Case No. 12JE-CC00596

Respondent.)	Filed: February 26, 2013

Relator, Anthony Kinsey ("Kinsey"), seeks a permanent writ in mandamus compelling Respondent, the Honorable Robert Wilkins ("Respondent"), judge of the circuit court of Jefferson County, to re-transfer the underlying action to the circuit court of Greene County. We issued a Preliminary Order in Mandamus and we make our preliminary order permanent, directing Respondent to re-transfer the underlying action back to the circuit court of Greene County.

PRELIMINARY ORDER IN MANDAMUS MADE PERMANENT.

Writ Division Six Holds: Section 508.010.4, RSMo 2005, determines venue for separate, yet successive automobile accidents occurring in different counties. Since Section 508.010.4 unambiguously requires venue lay in the county where the plaintiff was "first injured," Greene County is the appropriate venue.

Opinion by: Roy L. Richter, P.J.
Robert M. Clayton III, J., and Kurt S. Odenwald, J., concur.

Attorney for Relator: Robert D. Curran
Attorneys for Respondent: Mr. Jeffrey A. Benoist, Mr. David F. Sullivan
