MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY
MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS, WESTERN DISTRICT

SHANA MEDLEY, Appellant, v.
STATE OF MISSOURI DIVISION OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY, Respondent

WD76197

Labor and Industrial Relations Commission

Before Division Three Judges: Gabbert, P.J., Howard, and Newton, JJ.

Shana Medley appeals the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission (“Commission”) dismissing her appeal for failing to show good cause to excuse her failure to participate in her second telephone hearing before the Appeals Tribunal. In her only point on appeal, Medley argues that the Commission erred in denying her unemployment benefits because the Commission “willfully accepted and supported false information provided by the employer and the employees at Myers Nursing Home.”

DISMISSED

Division Three holds:

The appeal is dismissed because Medley’s brief fails to substantially comply with Rule 84.04 and fails to include any legal authority supporting her claim, preserving nothing for appellate review.
